

We are a society bombarded with unsolicited pitches; tv commercials, infomercials, junk mail, and telemarketers. my time with my family is precious enough. even if we screen our calls, it is still an interruption. there are ample ways to investigate and research any and everything my family wants and needs; and i prefer to do it myself - on my timetable. please keep nj's Do Not Call program in tact. thank you.